Manage account – submitting your employee data

You'll reach the 'Manage account' screen for the admin account you selected. In the 'Manage employees' section select 'Submit employee data'. Please note, if you see an exclamation mark beside the 'Select' button, this means you have an 'Action required' on the account you see this against.

The screenshot shows the 'Manage account' interface for 'the people's pension'. At the top right, the user is identified as 'test@email.com' with a 'Test Account Monthly - 123456'. The interface is divided into four main sections: 'Manage employees', 'Manage payments', 'Manage employer', and 'Help'. The 'Manage employees' section is highlighted with a blue border and a downward arrow, containing 'Submit employee data' (with a 'Select' button), 'Manage scheme leavers/opt outs' (with 'None to manage'), and 'Manage employee details' (with a 'Select' button). The 'Manage employer' section contains 'Manage worker groups' (with a 'Select' button), 'Company details' (with a 'Select' button), and 'Declaration of compliance' (with a 'Select' button and a red exclamation mark icon). The 'Manage payments' section contains 'Make a payment' (with a 'Select' button), 'Request a refund' (with a 'Select' button), 'Account transactions' (with a 'Select' button), and 'Automated collection' (with an 'Activate' button). The 'Help' section contains 'View documents' (with a 'Select' button), 'Resource library' (with a 'Select' button), and 'Give us your feedback' (with a 'Select' button). A left-hand navigation menu includes 'Home', 'Account home', 'Manage employees', 'Manage payments', 'Manage employer', 'Help', and 'Logout'. A 'Help & support' button is also present. At the bottom, there are links for 'Terms of Use', 'Legal', and 'Contact us'. Dotted blue lines with arrows point from the 'Submit employee data' button to the text above and from the 'Account transactions' button to the text on the right.

If you'd like to view your previous submissions, you'll find this by selecting 'Account transactions'.

You'll need to complete your declaration of compliance when:

- your duties start date has passed or
- you've submitted your first employee data.

You'll need to complete this to show The Pensions Regulator that you're meeting your duties as an employer.

Don't forget, you'll need to complete your declaration of compliance again at your re-enrolment date every 3 years.

Visit our website for more information about re-enrolment.

From here, we'll take you through a quick guide to submitting your employee data. If this isn't your first time submitting employee data or you've changed the upload process, you can click the 'Turn off' button to stop viewing the 'Getting started' pages.

It may be useful to take the tour to find out more about using your account, but you can skip this if you've submitted employee data to us before.

Getting started – your settings

There are several different ways to submit your employee data:

- You can submit your data directly from your payroll software using automatic payroll integration, also known as API, if your payroll software provider has this functionality.
- You can upload a file yourself. Depending on your payroll software provider, you may have a full file or maintenance and contribution files to submit.
- You can manually enter your employee data.

We'll remember what you've selected for next time, but you can change this at any time by going to the 'Account settings' tab of our 'Guides and settings' menu.

You can ask us to alert you if your contributions have changed from the previous time you sent us your employee data through any submission.

The 'Terms and conditions' should be read before making the first submission. This should be confirmed as read by the individual submitting the data only and not on behalf of someone else.

To make sure we handle your contributions correctly, we'll ask you to confirm your tax basis. To learn more on this visit our website.

Clicking on 'Continue' will take you to the 'Getting started' page where you can manually enter your data if you've reached your duties start date. Please note, the 'Continue' button will only appear once all the steps have been completed.

It looks like you've a new member to the pension scheme with a Non Eligible or Entitled auto-enrolment status – we've highlighted them in the table below. Please check you've received a written opt-in/joining notice asking you to enrol them in the pension scheme. They shouldn't be enrolled automatically. This example is based on 3% employer contribution and 4% employee contribution.

You can manually amend the earnings and contribution amounts for each employee if you need to.

When you submit employee data in each ongoing pay period, there'll be a tick box in the leaver column alongside each employee that's been included in a previous pay period. You'll need to wait until the employee has opted out before ticking this box. You'll know when an employee has opted out as the 'Leaver' column will say 'Opted out' and we'll also contact you to let you know.

If you add contribution amounts for an employee who hasn't previously been enrolled, we'll ask you to provide an enrolment date.

When all information has been added click 'Save and continue'.

If a member has been enrolled to the pension scheme but has now left due to opting out or leaving employment, tick the leaver box to remove the member.

Please note, if you click 'Cancel', all new employees added for that pay period will be deleted. So if this is the first pay period, all employees will be deleted.
